The WB Ranch is actively seeking sponsors for their Futurity Horse Show April 14, 2010 - April 18, 2010. This show will be featuring some of the best barrel racers from around the United States and Canada, as well as many local competitors. The weekend long show also includes a slot race with entry fees of $1000.00 and winnings of over $80,700.00 (all winnings are to be paid for by the entry fees and sponsorships). We are expecting hundreds of participants and spectators and hope to make this a great family weekend for all. We are looking for monetary donations of any amount. Your donation will go towards many things to make this a great family weekend for so many deserving people. We will be giving out money and prizes to all classes including the Pee-Wee and Youth fun barrel classes and the Grand Champion prize for the Youth Class. We are relying on the donations of charitable people and companies to put this event together. As a thank you for donating your name will be added to the sponsor page of the program books and on the website as well as on the sponsor board and the big screen television in the arena for the entire 2010 show season! We appreciate your consideration and hope to speak with you soon.
